Mary Washington College The Battlefield

Footfalls echo in the memory Down the passage which we did not take Towards the door we never opened
Into the rose-garden . . .

T.S. Elliot

What might have been is an abstraction
Remaining a perpetual possibility
Only in a world of speculation.
What might have been and what has been Point to one end which is always present.

T.S. Elliot

Life is full of pressures and tensions that motivate us to reach down and pull out our best when seemingly we already have.

At times the shadows densen and inhibit our thinking. What was light is now murky with indecision and confusion.

All around the world is closing in so that life's path grows narrower with each passing moment. Only a glimpse of reality can be seen.

Through the shadows we must go, entering the darkest vestules of life, conquering our most indomitable fears, for our strength lies in that small glow of hope beckoning us to fulfill life's journey.

A RIVER OF KNOWLEDGE flows here . . .
yet there is more . . .

A place to relax, to enjoy the inherent beauty of nature and ponder life's mysteries.

A time for personal growth, for attaining new heights.

A new beginning filled with friendships, responsibilities, challenges, and defeats.

in essence—maturity itself.

We're just here for a visit -
A temporary phase -
A stopping place along the path -
That leads us through the days.

When individuals unite, there can be no true darkness,
The friendships
one acquires must be celebrated.
Life is truly enriched when souls join.
Although there may be confusion and agitation accompanying human relationships, one must indulge and be content with the knowledge that serenity is not merely a dream

Tennis, anyone?

We've got to go, uh, study.

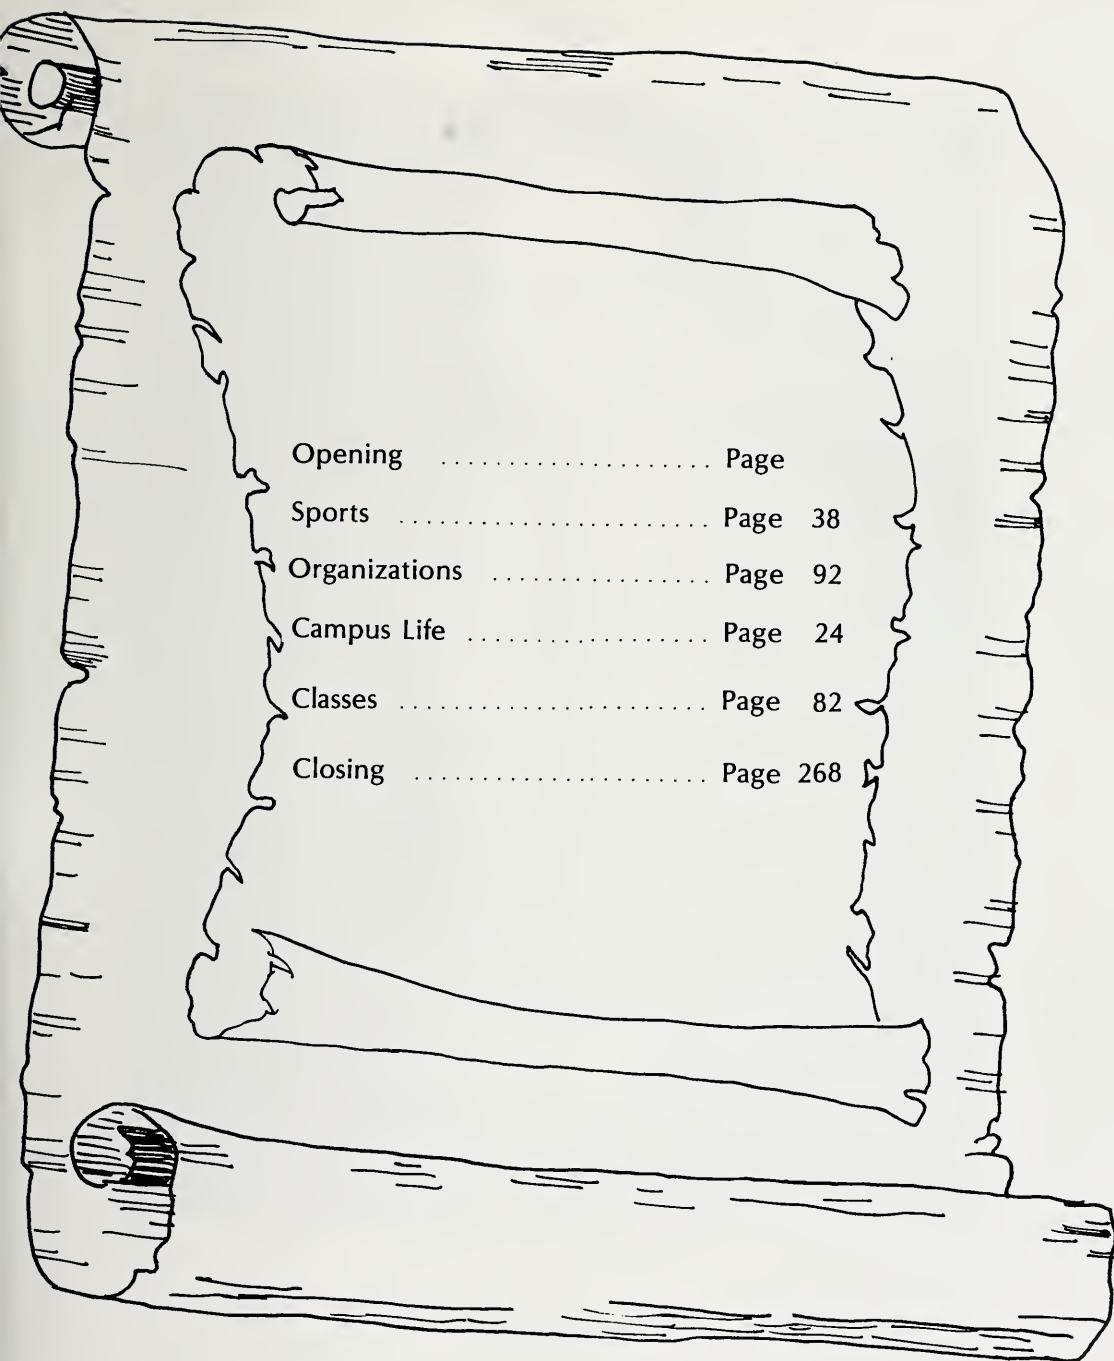

Just a minute, honey, there's someone at the door

Now what do I do with it???

Ain't we got fun?

After graduation we will remember many whom we met at Mary Washington. However, one will be especially prominent in our memories because he most often remembered us.

We will remember him as one who had vast stores of knowledge at hand and was eager to share it with us.

We should also think as Kahlil Gibran has written,

“When you are sorrowful, look again in your heart, and you shall see that in truth you are weeping for that which has been your delight.”

In recognition of the place he will occupy in our memories, we are proud to dedicate the 1983 BATTLEFIELD to

Men's Soccer

1983 is not only the celebration of Mary Washington College's 75th Anniversary, but also one of the best years yet for Blue Tide Soccer. Since 1978, when soccer first came into existence at MWC, the team has shown nothing but enthusiasm, growth and improvement. The fact that there were few Seniors on the team and many underclassmen, indicates an even brighter future for soccer at Mary Washington College.

One thing that may have hurt the team this year was the loss of a key player early in the season, but the team compensated for this loss and came back strong.

With each progressing year, you can be sure that Blue Tide Soccer will grow and improve.

Women's Fall Tennis

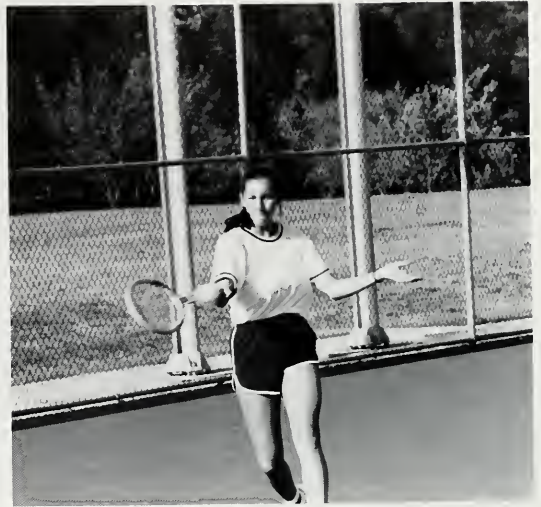

Front row: Sharon Hunt, Lorena Gaverly, Barbara Haberstroh, Patsy O'Connell (captain), Jaime Rund, Suzanna Stroble, Monica Foster, Back row: Mary Glowacki, Nancy Taylor, Kathy Devine, Coach Ed Hegmann, Kathy Healey, Julie Collins, and Deanna Wardman.

The Women's tennis team continued their fine play during the fall of 1982. The MWC Netters competed against Division I, II, and III schools and compiled a 15-1 record. The team also performed well in the Salisbury State Tournament and the Maryland Tennis Life Tournament. The top six players this fall were: Kathy Devine, Mary Glowacki, Kathy Healey, Patsy O'Connell, Jaime Rund, and Deeanna Wardman.

Men's Cross-Country

MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY 1982

The men's cross country team started this season with a squad of 13 men (twice as many as last year) and only two runners returning, Dave Modrak and Ray Owens. The young squad won its first five meets over teams, such as Lynchburg and Washington and Lee, who has beaten the Tide last year.

Jeff Byers, freshman and the number one runner for MWC throughout the season qualified to run in the NCAA Division III National Meet. Byers was the first male athlete from MWC to ever make national competition.

Rick Wagenaar coached the team to a fourth place ranking at the Division III Regionals and looks to an even better season next year.

Women's Cross Country

The women's cross country team has grown steadily over its four year career to the size of 16 runners this season. Nine runners returned from last year's squad with Marlene Moreno being one of these. Moreno has been MWC's top runner for two years. Freshman, Martha Forsyth, running #2 this year has shown strong improvement over the season. Together Moreno and Forsyth represented the womens squad in the Division III National Meet. Tom Davies coached the team to a place ranking at the Division III Regionals and feels the team has become much deeper and much more talented team.

Riding

The Riding Team, coached by Joanne Burke, had a consistent year. This was a year of building and strengthening. The majority of the riders were All-Regional, all were borderline in qualifying, and a few girls qualified for Nationals. Lorie Wentz obtained the highest number of points for the year. Sonya Armstrong, a freshman, brought new enthusiasm to the team. The last show was hosted by Mary Washington College at Hazelwild Farm on April 7.

Women's Volleyball

Field Hockey

Linda Lemanski, Lisa Leeper, Sally Jones, Beth Odell, Jen Baldwin, Julia Wilbourne, Allison Cornell, Karen Pohlmann, Jessie Jones, Sue Lehman, Erin McGinty, Mary Buckley, Kelly Edwards, Lisa Onucki, Cabell Jones, Jane Carroll, Therese Engman, Mary Hanson, Ann Ferraro, Demby Helwig, Whitney Van Landingham.

The MWC field hockey team pursued the best of a rebuilding season in 1982. The Tide had eleven players, only six with starting experience. The untimely loss of senior Debra Reid, an All-American 1981 team member and Mary Wash's career leading scorer Jenny Utz to graduation was a disappointment to the young team.

Three seniors led the squad, Jenny Baldwin (Capt.), Demby Helwig (Capt.), and Mary Hanson: in addition for team depth were eight talented frosh, some of whom filled important starting positions.

The heavy traveling season was highlighted by a spectacular Alumni game early in the fall. The Tide also hosted the Battleground's Invitational Hockey Tournament with MWC, American University, U. of Richmond, and Georgetown U.

Under Coach Meg Kintzing's sixth season of coordination, the hockey team looks enthusiastically for future seasons of quality merit.

Golf

The MWC golf team of fall 1982 was indeed a changed group of individuals in many respects from years past. The biggest of these changes was that the team was now co-ed. With the absence of two women to field an all womens team, the remaining women competed with the men on mens team. The team had one of its best seasons with the help of one woman golfer, Denise Furgeson, along with the help of returning lettermen, Paul Bull, Mitch Franklin, and Rob Sardiello who all helped fill the gap for the slumping two year veteran Chris Uthe. Two new additions to this years team freshman Bill Leckemby and commuting student John Forbes also contributed to this seasons improvement. Shooting consistently lower scores this fall, the golf team lost two very close matches by two and six strokes to Randolph-Macon and Christopher Newport respectively. More importantly was the fact that the golf team won its first head to head dual match in the history of the team at MWC with a convincing victory over Shanandoah College. This is the first stepping stone to many victories as Coach Droste looks forward to the spring 1983 golf season.

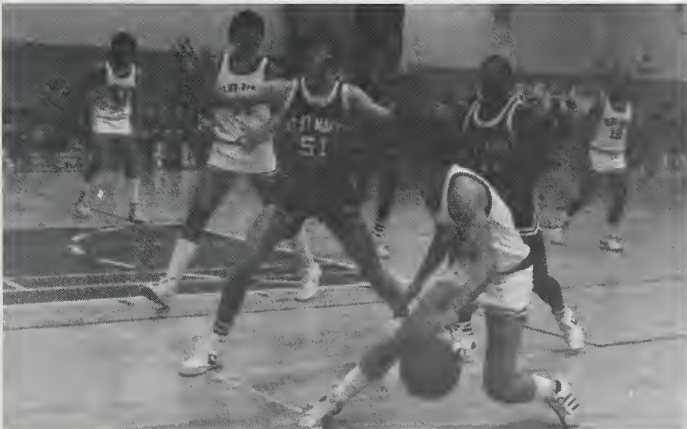

Men's Basketball

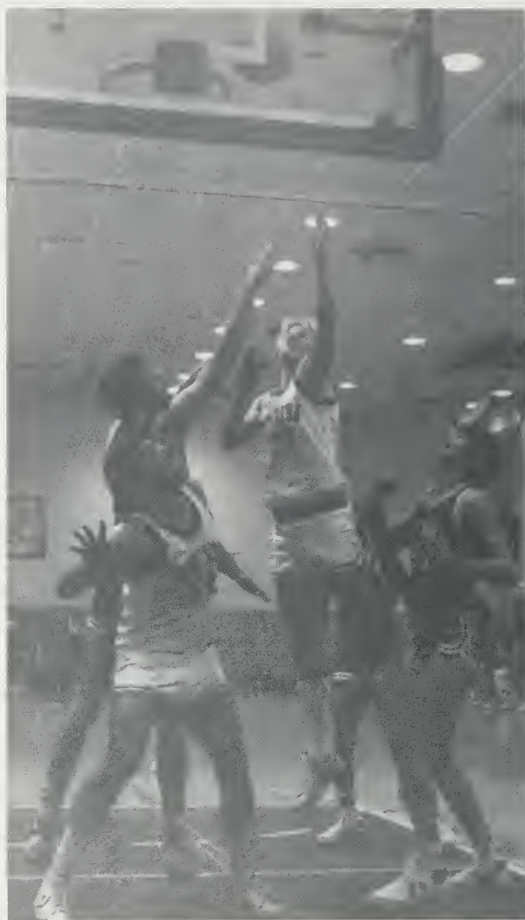

Picking up their momentum after two beginning losses, the men's basketball team ended their season winning the last four games out of four. They finished the season with a 15 - 11 record. David Morris tied his career high of 16 points in his last game, while Frank Gilmore set a new career high of 24 points against York College.

This was the Tide's second winning season following last year's 16-10 record. With help of Coach Tom Davies, the team will hopefully continue to do well.

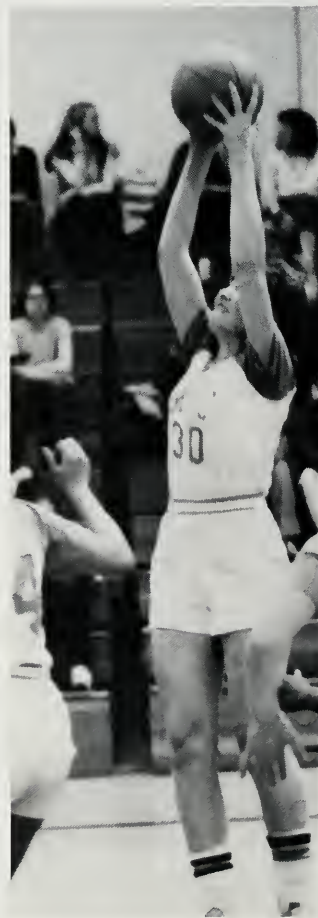

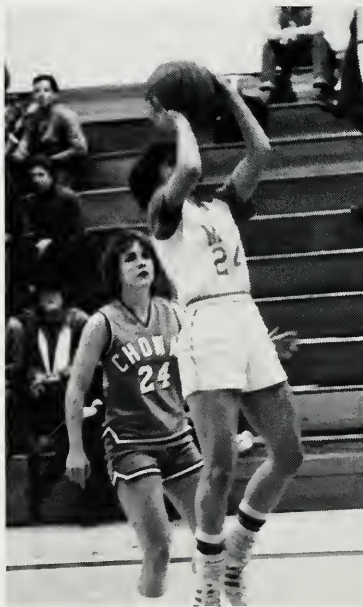

Women's Basketball

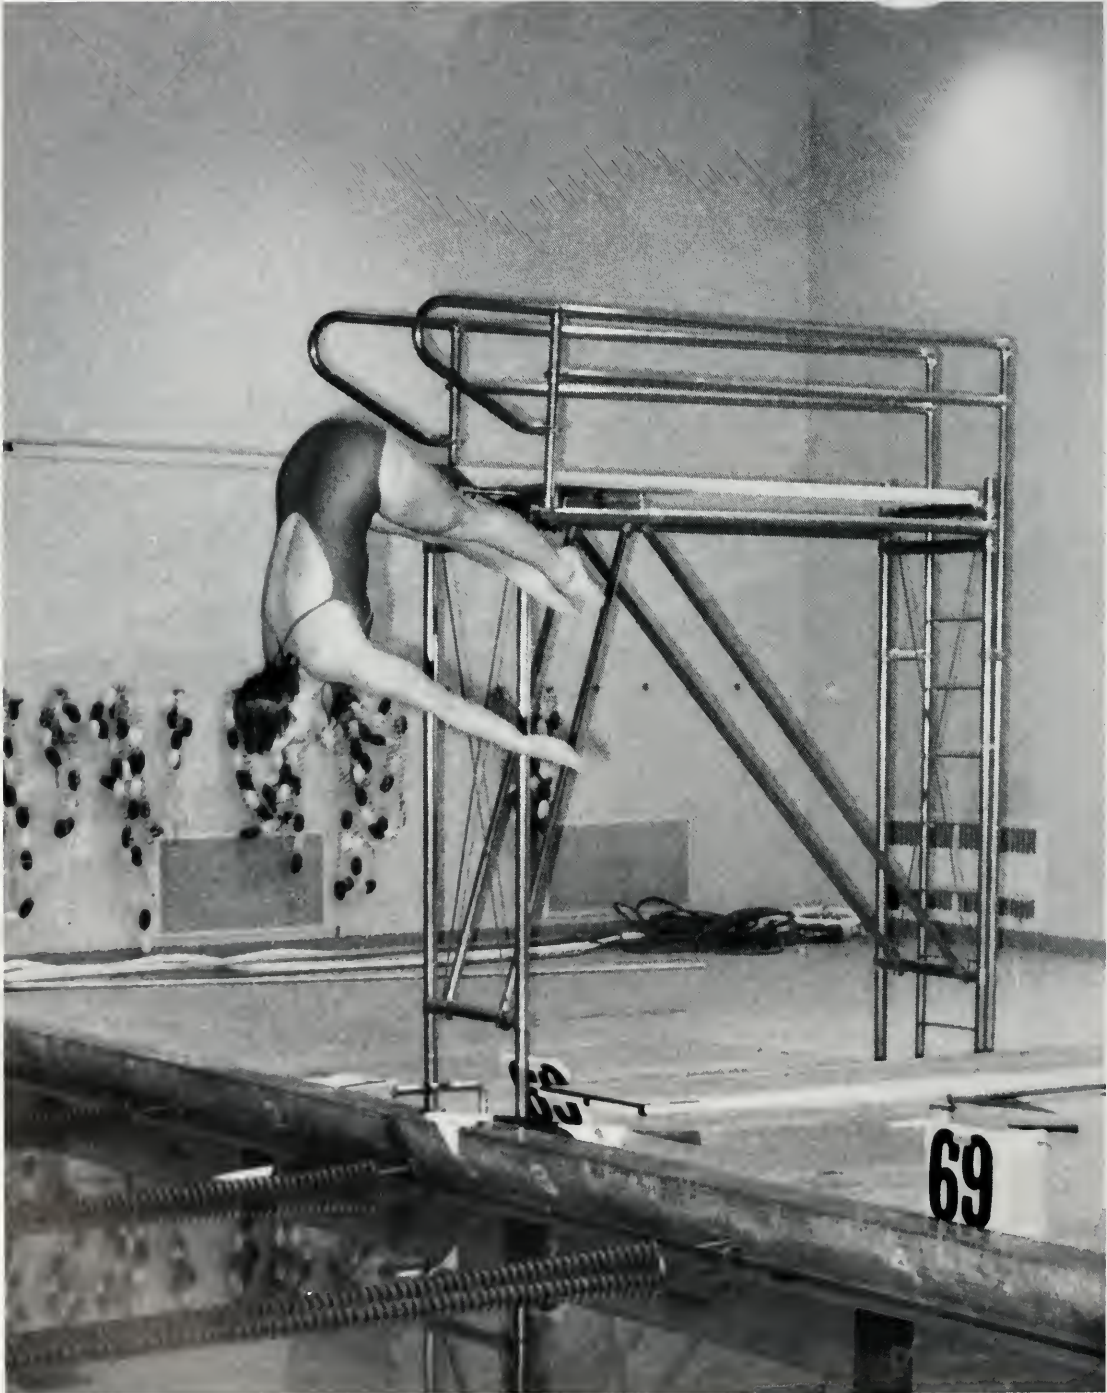

The Mary Washington women's basketball team had an impressive season this year, finishing with a 17 - 6 win-loss record. The team, coached by Connie Gallahan, placed second in the first women's ECAC South Regional Tournament. Junior, Trish Long, finishing her third season as a member of the team, led the team with 365 points this season. Another starting player, senior Jennifer Benner, leaves the Tide after three years as a guard. The team as a whole played well, and as commented by Coach Gallahan, "We had the sort of season that any coach would be proud of."

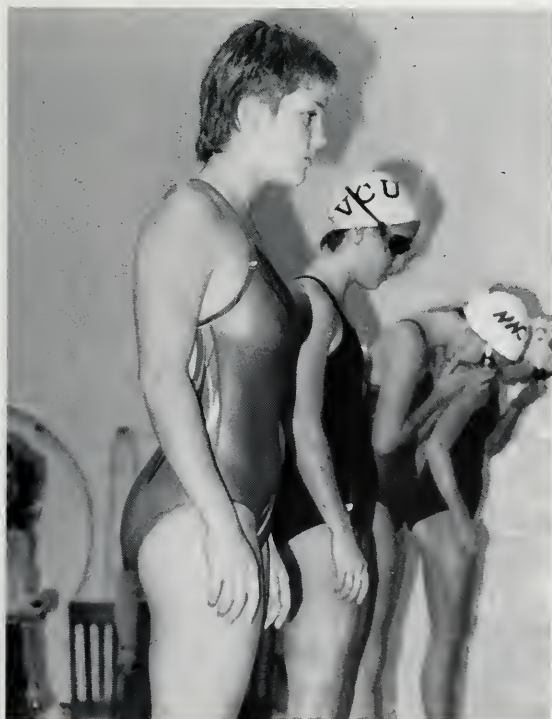

Swimming

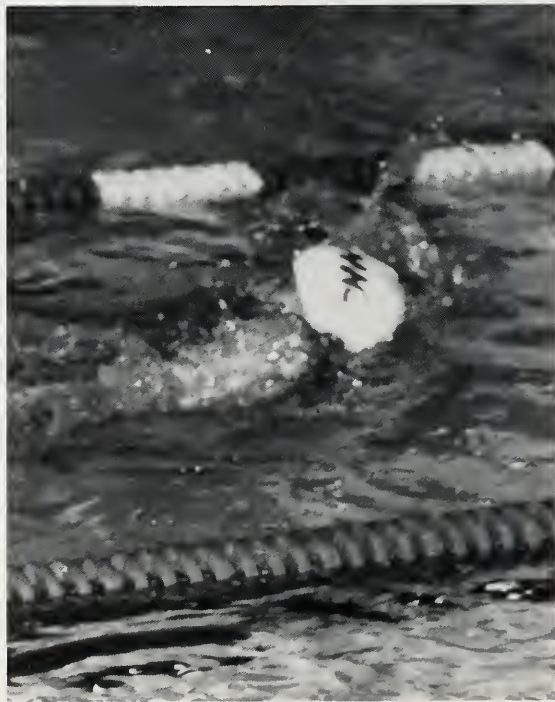

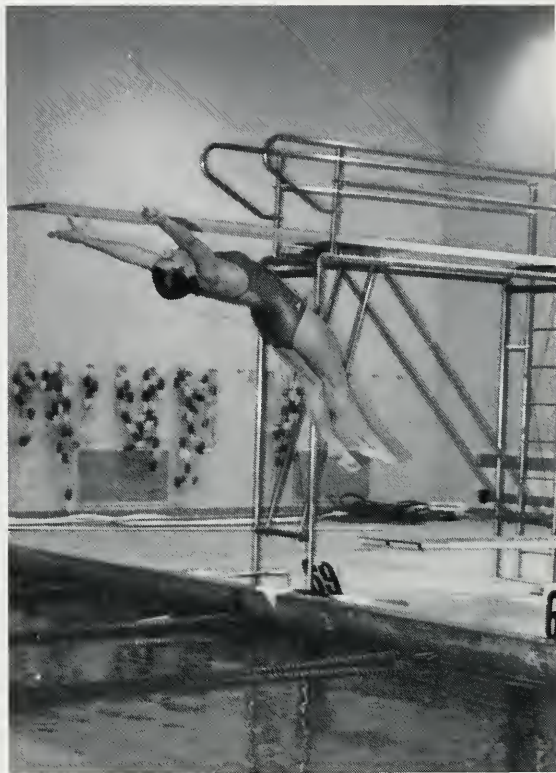

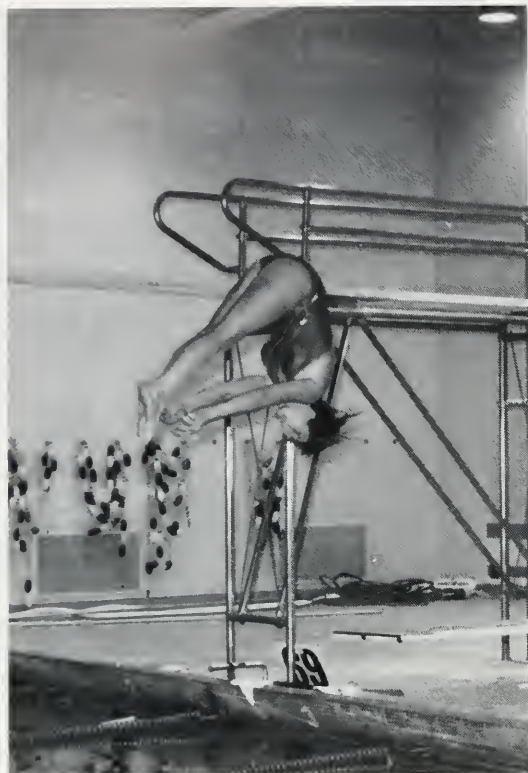

Seated: Laura Ellison, Mery Bettendorf, Cathron Brooks, Lisa Featherstone, Ann Cumming, Jennifer Lane Standing: Leslie Oraziatti, Terry Lehman, Beth Kelly, Rebecca Berry, Leslie Hoerner, Coach Jim Grace

After a regional championship season with a relay team at the national meet in 1981-82, the Mary Washington College Blue Tide swim and dive team is looking again toward national levels of competition in 1982-83. Led by national Division III meet in 1982, Ann Cumming, Rebecca Berry, and Lisa Featherstone, national meets are a realistic goal.

Men's And Women's Track

The women's season extended through the month of May as the two mile relay team trained to compete in the Division III AIAW National Meet. Marlene Moreno, Chris Scott, Kathy McCaughey, and Terry Hudachek each earned All-American status as they placed fifth at nationals. The women also finished first in Division III's state meet.

The men fielded an entire team this season for the first time. Their mile relay team missed qualifying for Nationals by three seconds.

Both teams are coached by Rick Wagenaar and have the advantage of training on its new track, one of the best small college facilities in Virginia.

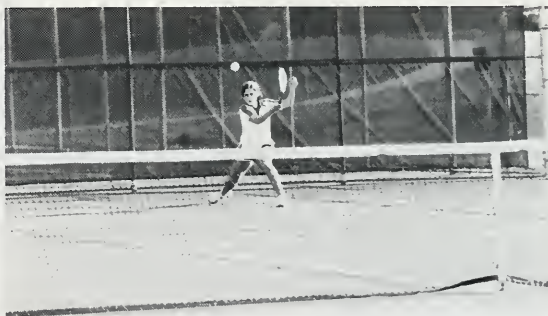

Women's Spring Tennis

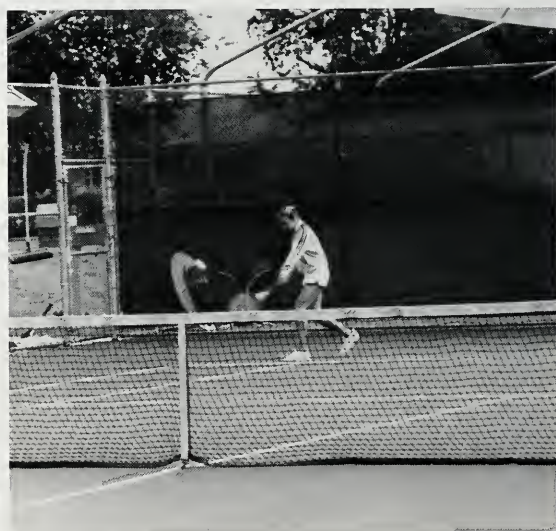

Julie Collins, Patsy O'Connell, Mary Glowacki, Deeanne Wardman, Kathy Healey, Lorena Caverly, Jamie Rund, Renee Rund, Kathy Devine, and Barbara Haberstroh. Coach: Ed Hegmann.

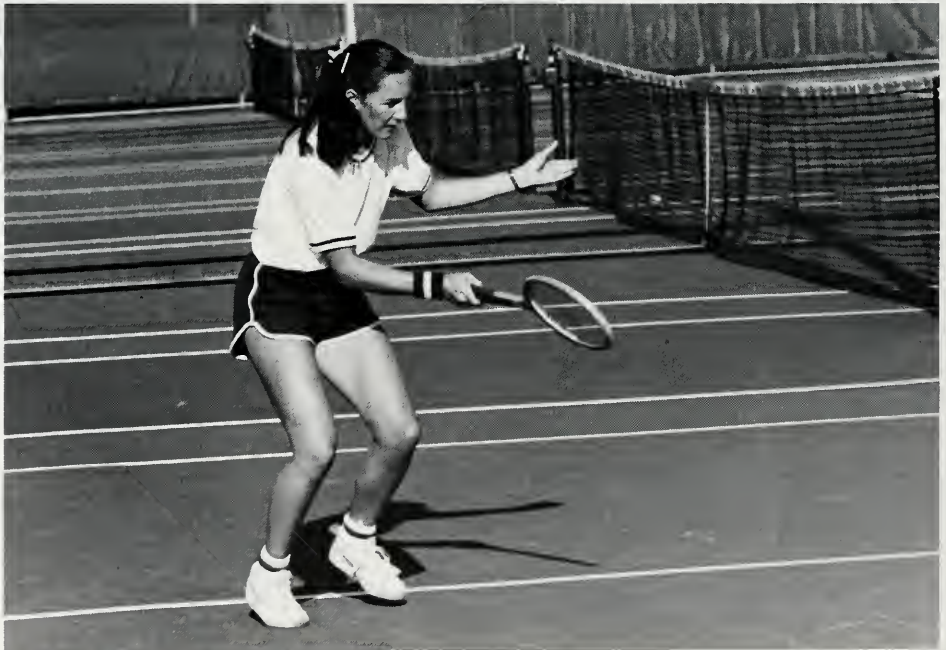

The 1981-1982 Women's Tennis Team earned Mary Washington's first national championship title, last spring. On their way to the national championship, the team compiled an overall record of 22-5. Against Division III schools, the team went undefeated, 15-0. The Netters finished first in the AIAW state, regional, and national championships. The team also finished fourth in the NCAA National Division III Tournament. The participants in those tournaments were: Kathy Healey, Mary Glowacki, Kathy Devine, Deeanne Wardman, Patsy O'Connell, and Jamie Rund.

Junior Ring Week

The Agony And The Ecstasy

The week of March 22-27, 1982 marked an eventful week for the junior class. It was traditionally known as Ring Week. This was the week that the juniors were at the mercy of both upper and underclassmen.

During this week it was not a strange sight to see underwear hanging from the railings, a paper-filled room, or an entire bedroom in Ball Circle. It was not uncommon to feel Vaseline on doorknobs, tea in the shower heads, or shaving cream between the toes.

The juniors suffered the mischievous pranks of their peers with the thoughts of receiving their class rings looming in the near future. On Thursday night, March 25, Dr. William Anderson presented the class with their rings.

After Ring Presentation, the juniors had Saturday, March 27, and Ring Dance to look forward to. The dance was a formal affair held in the Battlefield Room of the Sheraton Hotel. All in all it was a week of excitement for everyone.

Wasn't that a party???

Parent's Weekend

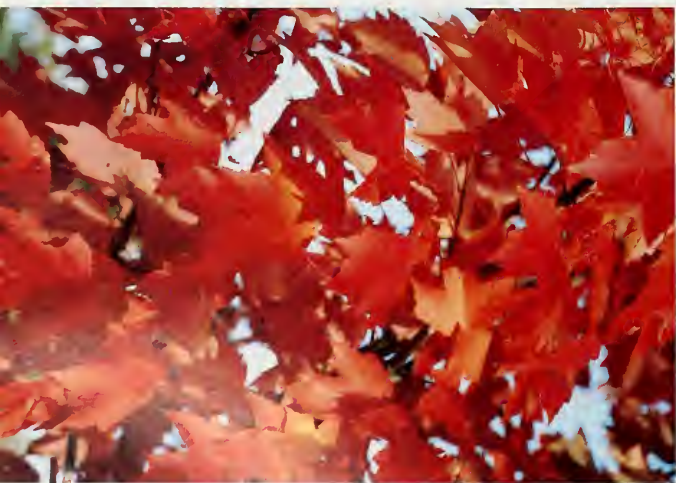

Friday, September 24, a rare and strange sight was seen on Mary Washington campus - people. Why were there so many people still around on a Friday afternoon? Suddenly the realization dawned, it was Parent's Weekend. But what did this mean? To some it meant that their winter clothes would arrive. To others it was a chance to eat off of campus and get those "necessities" that were absolutely "needed". To a few it was the first time they'd seen mom and dad since the end of August. To most of the students (still on campus) however, it meant a hectic weekend full of activities.

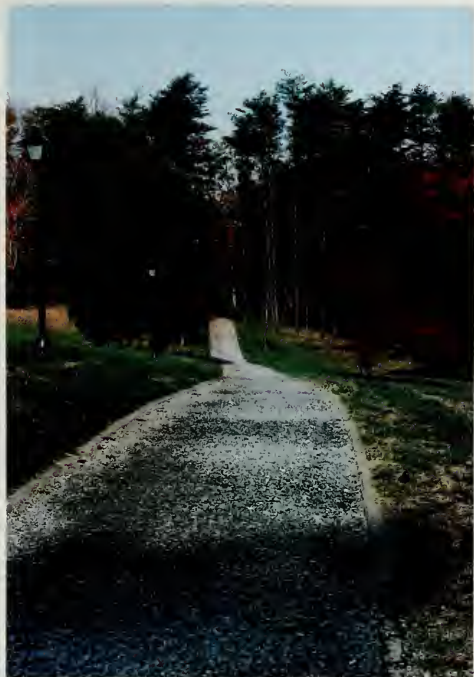

The Parent's Weekend schedule kicked off on Friday night with a talent show in Dodd Auditorium and a Terrapin and Gymnastics show in Goolrick. On Saturday morning the parents were invited to a coffee with the faculty in the Ballroom in Lee Hall. At 11:00 there was a picnic on Ball Circle featuring the Vic Simas Band. At 1:00 the parents and students were invited to a Faculty Fair on Westmoreland Green or the option of taking the historic Fredericksburg tour.

Freshman parents were more likely to participate in the events then were upperclassman's parents. All in all the weekend was a big success.

Halloween's 1982

The biggest keg party of the year was held on October 29 in Goolrick Gym. Traditionally known as "Halloween's", this party draws the largest crowd of both MWC students and non-students.

The costumes vary from the typical ghosts and goblins to Smurfs and L.L. Bean's. The costumes are a good chance for each person to show his individuality.

The Beauties (?) Of MWC

Wo-man 1982

Being a Man at the Mostly Women College

Now y'all may think we've got it easy
But it ain't all peaches and cream
Cuz being a man at the mostly women college
Is often more a nightmare than a dream.

My dad said I'd have troubles studying'
With all these girls getting in my way
But Dad, that just ain't the problem
They've all got boyfriends at UVa.

It's true we have our 'Reps' in the S.A.
But they just don't get the job done
I guess it's 'kinda hard to get a majority
When you're outnumbered five to one

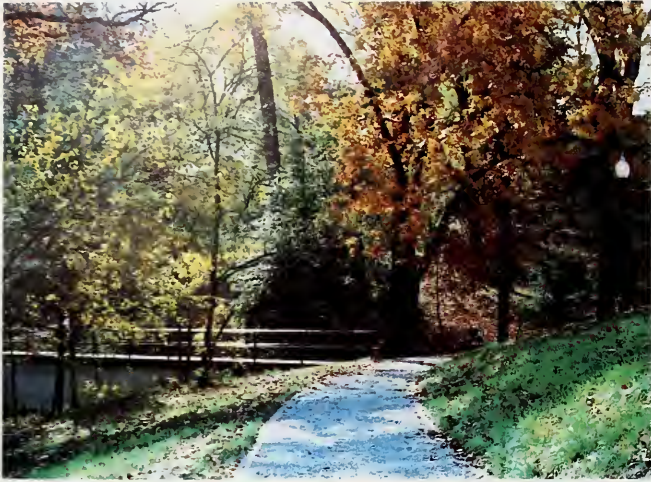

I guess I do a lot of complaining
But really that's just my way But even though I'm a man at the mostly women college
I'm a man that's here to stay.

Now y'all may think we've got it easy
But it ain't all peaches and cream
But being a man at the mostly women college
Ain't quite as bad, as it might seem!

That Is Simply There.

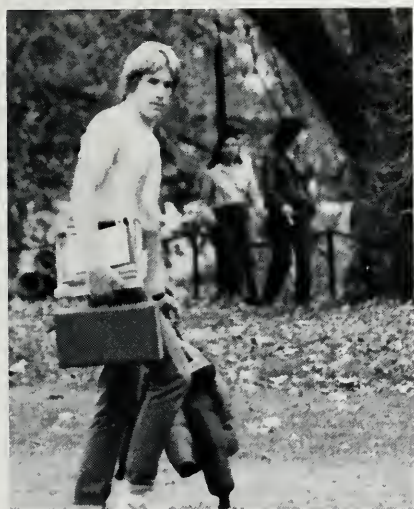

Stop, Look,

And He Will Surely

Wonderful Town

This year's drama production, the play Wonderful Town, was written in the 1930's. It involved two girls from Ohio moving to Greenwich Village, New York, in search of fame and success. One of the girls wished to be a singer/actress, and the other a writer. Both endure several ordeals, but in the end, they achieve their goals. There is even a touch of romance to this humorous success story as the two girls find the men of their dreams. Typical of its origin, the play ends with everyone supposedly living happily ever after.

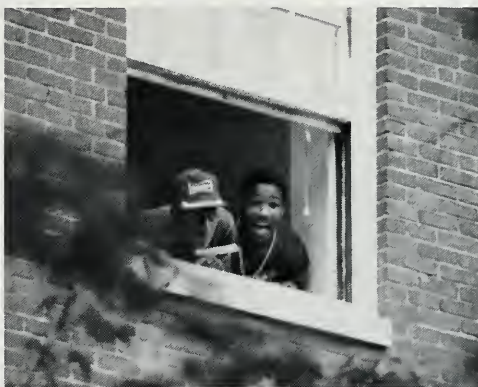

EUROPE ON WHEELS

For thirty days a group of 13 MWC students studied the life and land of Europe from the seat of a bicycle on a trip that took them from the walled, half timbered villages of Alsace to the sun drenched beaches of the Cote d'Azur and Monaco. It was an unforgettable trip through cafes, little hotels, surprising hospitality, exercise and sun.

Paris, Strasburg, Monte Carlo mixed with impressions of the Rhone Valley, Provence, and the Mediterranean Coast to make a set of lifetime memories brought home along with tired bodies and glowing suntans.

Well, "it looks like we made it" to the final days of school and Mary Washington College. There were bad times but the good times are prominent in our minds. They included rings, Junior Ring Week, Ring Dance and even the Wo-man contests. Ann Thompson (?) talks animatedly to Dan Steen before the Wo-man contest while also keeping an eye on the camera.

Civil War Re-Enactment

Founder's Day Weekend

A time to look back;
A time to trudge onward;
Just an uncertain journey clouded with images of the past . . .
. . . a life of simplicity.
Undisturbed, it beckons
you to stay-
to stop, rest,
and absorb the serenity.
The comforting quiet lulls you into an isolated world where no problems can invade your thoughts.
But there is a long and winding road ahead, full of unanswered questions and unsearched corners.
So you trudge onward and leave the past behind.

Commencement

"We Are What Wer Pretend To Be,
So We Must Be Careful About What We Pretend To Be."

Kurt Vonnegut, Jr.

At last the 1983 BATTLEFIELD has gone to print. It has been a long year with few ups and many downs. A year-book doesn't just happen. It takes many hours of hard work for each section.

I had planned to take this space to tell my staff thanks for the many hours of work that they put into this book, but what can I say? To say thanks just doesn't seem to be enough. There are so many people who contributed what they could to this year's book, that this book is literally by those people, for those people. My deepest gratitude to all of you.

Thank you so much, Carla and Chris for helping me make this book a reality. Without the two of you, I couldn't have done it. Liz, as a roommate, you were very understanding whenever I was in a horrible mood. Thanks for the patience. Mary—should I throw out big words? No, seriously, I don't think I could have "handled it" without you. I could always count on you and your moral support. Thanks!

I hope all of you find parts of this book that remind you of Mary Washington College. This book is for all of you who made MWC happen.
